

BPP University Pro Bono Centre's Streetlaw project: free legal education for your primary school

Why would Streetlaw benefit my school?

1. Streetlaw is a free legal education project which empowers individuals by making them aware of their legal rights and responsibilities as citizens in a democratic society.
2. Our fun and interactive workshops help demystify complex areas of law relevant to people's lives, through activities such as role plays, group discussion and quizzes.
3. Streetlaw's primary school branch is targeted at Key Stage 2 (Years 5 and 6) and is designed to support your school in promoting SMSC and British Values as part of national curriculum and Ofsted requirements.

Why are BPP students best placed to deliver Streetlaw?

1. Workshops are delivered by trained postgraduate law students in the final stage of academic and vocational training prior to entry into the legal profession.
2. BPP student volunteers are committed to the "pro bono" ethos - to use their legal skills to enhance access to justice for their local communities.
3. The Streetlaw project is overseen by staff members who are qualified lawyers. Staff members responsible for Streetlaw have obtained "Gold" status as UK Parliament Teacher Ambassadors, demonstrating the project's ability to develop schoolchildren's understanding of democracy.

4. BPP's Streetlaw project is award winning, recognised on a national level at the annual LawWorks and Attorney General Student Awards for its positive impact in communities (most recently 2021 Runners Up in the Best Team of Students category).
5. BPP was awarded the Citizenship Foundation's 'Smart Law' Quality Mark (an accredited system for public legal education resources) for its Goldilocks on Trial resource.

How does Streetlaw work?

- Streetlaw workshops are available for delivery by a group of trained student volunteers either:
 - (i) in person at your venue; or
 - (ii) online with either:
 - (a) individual access to devices (e.g. computer; smartphone); or
 - (b) group access to a shared device (utilising a venue staff member as facilitator).
- Workshops usually last 45 – 90 minutes to fit into your timetable.
- All we require from you is that a member of your staff is present during the workshop.
- Face to face delivery is only available in locations commutable from city centres where BPP University Law Schools are based: Birmingham; Bristol; Manchester; Leeds; London (Holborn & Waterloo)
- Online workshops for all other clients are delivered via Microsoft Teams meetings. There is no requirement to download any specific software onto your device to participate.
- To facilitate requests, we may also recommend online provision for locally based clients due to e.g. volume or timing of workshops requested.

A quick word about the remit of the Streetlaw service

Streetlaw workshops aim to empower individuals with general knowledge about their rights. Knowledge is a powerful tool. Student volunteers are not permitted (and do not have the professional qualifications yet) to give specific legal advice to audience members about their personal circumstances. They are able to signpost audience members to potential sources of help.

Ready to book a workshop, or have more questions?

Please contact us at streetlawteam@bpp.com to discuss your requirements in more detail (including e.g. your preferred delivery mode, time and topic; audience needs; and any Covid-19 secure measures external visitors to your site are expected to adhere to).

“...The children benefitted hugely from the experience. It was fun, informative and engaging... Feedback from the children afterwards was extremely positive and they displayed an excellent understanding of the legal processes involved. Several children even expressed a fascination and newfound interest in the legal profession...A word of thanks once again to your legal students, for their patient, knowledgeable and well-directed delivery and management of the trial. I certainly hope to work with the BPP Streetlaw team again next year...”
